Come peruse the talented entries to our annual Spring Art Show (on the main level of the Harhcock Gallery). This non-juried art competition showcases artists of all different ages and calibers, giving artists from all over the Ozarks an opportunity to display their work and compete for different category and division awards. Visitors will find art for sale and can vote for the People's Choice award, in addition to enjoying the historical exhibits in the other areas of the museum. Admission is free.
