

Jimmie Marler Art Show

Our current one-man show focuses on the work of longtime Drury art professor, Jimmie Marler. This ambidextrous artist is rather prolific; he creates one (and sometimes two & three) pieces of art per night.

With practiced skill, Mr. Marler creates art using many different mediums. His scratch art pieces have a bold simplicity, while his dreamy landscapes emerge from pastels. He utilizes graphite pencil to sketch softly subtle portraits. Mr. Marler's collection is indeed an eclectic joy to behold. Be sure to stop in to see it!

The show will be on display at the #HarlinMuseumWP #HathcockGallery through November 17th. #artshow #artmuseum #DiscoverYourOzarks
