

MAKE-UP DATE: Wool Felting a Landscape with Angela Bullard

Wool Felting Workshop with Angela Bullard

$30 (Please reserve your spot in advance)

The emphasis of this textile workshop will be demonstrating how to design, plan, and needle felt a landscape scene using loose wool fibers as your medium. This technique can be applied to making wall hangings for your home, jewelry to give as gifts, and countless other crafts.

INSTRUCTOR: Angela Bullard

WHERE: Lower Level Classroom Space

WORKSHOP HOURS: 12noon to 4 pm

SUBJECT: Painting a Needle Felted Wool Landscape. This class will be all hand felting techniques using wool

COST: $30.00 per person (all material will be provided)

SUPPLIES:

All materials needed for a small wool felting landscape will be provided.

LUNCH/REFRESHMENTS: Drinking water will be provided; please bring your own bag lunch or snacks

Sponsored by the Harlin Museum Board

Proceeds will go towards improving the Harlin Museum Gift Shop.

POINT OF CONTACT: Gladys Morris, 417-255-0920, gmorris@centurylink.net.

Please let the museum know if you want to attend ASAP, for set-up spacing and materials. You may pay at the door upon arrival.