Deadline to register for the John P. Lasater IV 2-Day Plein Air workshop by August 30th, 2020.

August 7, 2020

Join award-winning representational painter, John P. Lasater IV, for a 2-day Plein air painting workshop this September, hosted by the Harlin Museum.

Workshop activities begin Tuesday evening, September 1st, with an Artist Meet & Greet at Harlin Museum of West Plains

(participants will be notified of event time upon registration confirmation) at which participants will view a presentation given by the artist. Students will then meet the artist on location at Mammoth Spring State Park, Mammoth Springs, Arkansas, for the Plein air instructional workshop sessions on Wednesday & Thursday, September 2 & 3, 2020, from 9 am – 4 pm each day.

The cost to attend the workshop is $300.00 total for both days. Payment must be made in full to Harlin Museum by the first day of the workshop. Students are responsible for bringing their own art supplies to the workshop, as well as a bag lunch or any other desired refreshments. The general supply list for John's workshops can be found on his website at <https://www.lasaterart.com/page/17524/workshop-supply-list>.

All questions may be directed to the Harlin Museum via email at info@harlinmuseum.com or you may phone/text the workshop's coordinator, Vicki Warren-Martin, at 870-706-7863. Registration to reserve a seat may be completed online by clicking the link HERE and completing the Bookings instructions at the bottom of the page.
