Did you know we've sold more vintage movie posters than anyone in the world?

Did you know we've sold more vintage movie posters than anyone in the world? From 1990 to 1999 we sold over 12 million dollars of posters through auctions and sales catalogs, and from 2000 to 2008 we auctioned 13 million dollars of posters on eBay. Since April 2008, we solely auction right here on our own website (currently every fourth Tuesday, Thursday, and Sunday), and for the past ten years we have averaged over 5 million dollars in sales per year, and in 2020 we had our first 6 million dollar year (with half as many auctions because we switched to bi-weekly auctions)! In 2021 we again switched (to every 4 week auctions) and remarkably we will again break our yearly sales record with far fewer auctions! Go to our About Us page to learn more.

We would like to highlight the wonderfully generous sponsor of our annual high school art show this year, the #westplainsmo local business EMoviePosters.com!

This movie media powerhouse has been offering online auctions of movie posters, lobby cards, stills, and more since 1999 and has a reputation for the best customer service in the business.

Owner Bruce Hershenson's appreciation for art (of all forms) led him to donate to this year's Harlin Museum High School Art Show. He hopes to encourage the artists of tomorrow to continue creating and working toward fulfilling their own dreams—just as he did when he founded his company—because working in a field that you are passionate about truly leads to a happier life.

If you don't know much about EMoviePosters.com and/or have an affinity for movie memorabilia (from vintage to modern film), we highly encourage you to check them out! You can visit their website (as they are an online business) by clicking the link HERE. Let's give them a big thank you and a grateful round of applause! 🙌 🙌 🙌 Thank you, Bruce & Co., for all your support!!
